Back To Reality!

As week 8 started, so did all the rain, but that didn't stop us from having the time of our lives the last week of camp! We just took all the fun inside!

Although, our parent BBQ had to be postponed until Wednesday night, we were thrilled to see that more families came to this summer's festivities than ever before! A great time was had by all. We hope you were able to enjoy many of the activities opened to you, as well as a stop by the photo booth to take a quick pic.

Wednesday's wear it, was another camper favorite, Pajama Day. It looked like our campers and team members came to camp ready to go back to bed! And could you imagine a better day to have breakfast for lunch? The fun didn't stop there, because we also took our annual camper picture...the big "13"! Our youngest campers wore their gold t-shirts and our upper campers wore their green camper tees, and together they made the largest number 13 in the world! That's impressive!

Middle and Senior camp leagues finished up this week. Congrats to all those that participated. Our Middle camp winners were: Gold—Team 2, Silver—Team 6, and Bronze was a tie among teams 3 and 7. Our Senior camp winners ended in a tie, with teams 1 and 3 taking the Gold, and teams 4 and 5 taking home the Bronze. Great job!

It's hard to believe that our Summer of 2011 has come to an end. In the short amount of time we spent together, we sure had a lot of fun. We hope you enjoyed the summer as much as we did. Ask your campers about our year-end slide show. Set to music that brought tears to our eyes, it sure did capture all the greatest moments of the summer. From the first bus to arrive on the first day of camp, to The NewlyMet Game, Crazy Hair Day, Candy Commotion, the Color War Break and the 86 acre relay, Mr. & Mrs. Frogbridge, Sweet Caroline and the largest camper conga line in the world, and so much more that can't possibly be listed on one page, this is one summer we won't soon "froget". Have a great school year ahead. We can't wait to see you back at Frogbridge next summer! The summer of 2012 camp season will be here in only 309 more days!!!!

Highlight of the Week!

Our annual Parent BBQ night was jam packed with fun all night long. As campers returned to camp with their families, Harry J was eagerly waiting for them to join him in a night of fun. Campers and families enjoyed a BBQ dinner, and were able to participate in many of our favorite activities. Thank you to all those families and team members that made our night such a success.

Did You Know?

JR played Division 1 baseball for 4 years at Hofstra University where he was named the team captain. Non drafted out of college, he was called for tryouts with The New York Mets, Philadelphia Phillies, Chicago Cubs, and Baltimore Orioles. Although he made the final cut with all 4 teams, he was not offered a contract by any of them, so he then decided to become a full time camp director. Good for us!!!!
